No player can work under Griffith who has nothing to recommend him but a good batting average. There must be intelligence, speed, fielding and throwing ability, combined with the batting proclivities, before Griffith will invite them to his roster, and it is this very fact that makes the future of some of his young men look dubious.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Alfredo De Oro of New York won his third game in the world's championship three-cushion billiard tournament Saturday night, when he defeated Charlie Ellis of Cleveland, the Interstate League leader, 50 to 42. The Cuban led all the way, but Ellis ran six in his sixty-sixth and last iming,
which made the finish a bit interesting.
De Oro baffled Ellis with his clever safety play, demonstrating that the youngsters still have something to learn from the veterans of the angle game.
It was Ellis' second defeat.
George Sutton, who has been kept out of play by illness, has withdrawn from the tourney and Jevne will take his place.

Agnew's Wild Heave Costs Game.

HOUSTON. Tex., March 15.—A wild throw in the ninth inning by Catcher Sam Agnew with the bases filled cost the Bowns a victory over the Houston Buffaloes yesterday. The final score was 5 to 4. Agnew's wild heave letting the Bowns a victory wild heave letting to take any of their places.

Though it was believed that Manager Griffith would allow Walter Johnson to pitch in batting practice after the season gets under way, it seems he has no intention of doing so. Griffith argues that inasmuch as Johnson has control and a good strong arm, he is not benefited by pitching any more than he has to by taking his regular turn on the rubber and keeping himself ready for emergences.

Nearly 1,500 Pocket Billiard Players in "Hazard" Event in Columbus. One of the biggest and most novel ournaments ever played in this country was recently staged at Columbus, Ohio. It was known as a "hazard" tournament and attracted an entry list of 1,430, more than 1,100 of these players shooting for the thirty-eight prizes, most of which were donated by local merchants. The event was handled by E. A. Pearce, the veteran Ohio pocket billiard player, who was assisted by Manager Strauss of the Brunswick-Balke-Collander Company. The fifteen balls were racked as in rotation, and each contestant was allowed twelve shots. As it is possible for a novice to get one or more high balls on the break, the novice has almost an equal chance with the expert. After the break the balls have to be played in their numerical order. First prize was won by E. C. Nibling, with a total of $1. The highest possible score is 120. Among the contestants was Hank Gowdy, catcher of the world champion Boston Braves. Many of the leading business men of Columbus also took a shot for the prizes. No entry fee was
